Any active boy can make plenty of money in his neighborhood by re-plating tableware and jewelry with one of the Magic Electric Plating Outfits. Those who have already secured one of these machines are making from $20 to $25 a week. The price of the plating outfit is $10, but we have arranged to supply it to one boy only in each neighborhood for a few hours work, which can be done after school or on Saturday. No capital required. Any boy sending his address and referring to some merchant in his town as to honesty will receive full particulars by return mail. This is a permanent money making business for the right kind of a boy. Apply at once. Address Ladies Pictorial Co., Toronto, Ont.

HAPPINESS.

Happiness often consists in reading a good paper, one that leaves a pleasant taste in the mouth, one that you can rise up from perusing with the knowledge that you have gained something of permanent advantage. There are papers which do not give this happiness, but which, while exciting for the moment, result in permanent evil, although the immediate effect at the moment may not be apparent. The Montreal Witness is a paper of the former class. It is good; it does good. The Weekly edition is sent to subscribers for one dollar a year, the Daily for three dollars, and the NORTHERN MESSENGER, a paper for the younger members of the family particularly and for Sunday Schools, for thirty cents a year.

The subscribers of THE TIMES can have it and the Montreal DAILY WITNESS for $3 50, THE TIMES and the WEEKLY WITNESS for $2 25, and the MESSENGER with either of the for 25 cents extra.

SOOP'ER UP.

The large and intelligent audience which filled the auditorium of Thompson's cosy hall on Monday evening last to witness the dramatic performance under the auspices of the Saskatchewan Curling Club, no doubt expected that something more than ordinary would be presented to them, and in this expectation it is safe to say not a single case of disappointment could have been found among the auditors. The cast of the 2nd act play "Checkmate" was as follows:—Sir Eustace Toffee, Mr. L. J. Clarke; Sam Winkle (his groom) Mr. T. N. Campbell; Henry (waiter at hotel) Mr. J. M. R. Neely; Parsley, (a gardener) Mr. A. Agnew; Strap, (a stable man) Mr. Geo. Baker; Checks (a page-boy) Mr. W. Pritchard; Bottles (a butler) Mr. J. M. R. Neely; Miss Charlotte Russel, Miss Pritchard; Martha Bonn, (her maid) Miss Hill; Mary Ann, and Jane (servants) Miss Stewart and Miss Wheeler. Upon Misses Hill and Pritchard and Messrs. L. J. Clarke, T. N. Campbell, and J. M. R. Neely fell the "heavy work" of the performance, namely, the unravelling of the light and transparent plot of the play, and it would be hard to find, among amateurs at least, better hands in which to entrust the work. Miss Pritchard, in her different characters, did well and thoroughly her part as she always does anything she undertakes, and Miss Jessie Hill delighted all present by her charming versatility in the portrayal of the two characters, Miss Charlotte Russel, an heiress and her maid Martha Bonn, creating lots of merriment by the very manner in which she dropped her H's and picked them "back again" as occasion required. Mr. Clarke though apparently rather nervous at the start, soon regained his composure and presented the character of gentleman and groom very acceptably. The old reliable, T. N. Campbell, was unquestionably the "phunny" man of the piece an honor which was most deservedly shared by Mr. Neely, both gentlemen are so favorably known to amateur theatre goers in Prince Albert, that words of praise would be superfluous except perhaps to say that on this occasion they excelled any previous appearance of like characters in this town. Messrs. Cann and Way were happy in their selection of instrumental music between the acts, and their efforts were duly appreciated. For the general excellence of the affair altogether, credit is due to one who did not appear in the performance—Mr. J. L. Johnson, stage business and general manager, who usually succeeds in all his undertakings to the line of entertaining the public.

Owing the want of space in this issue, our report of the concert on Tuesday evening has to remain over until next week.

THE NEW YEAR.

At the commencement of 1892 we beg to wish our many readers a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Many changes have taken place since the beginning of 1891, and most of these changes have been advantageous to Prince Albert.

One marked difference between the year that has just passed and former years, is the number of new people among us, people who have come to make Saskatchewan their home, and who express themselves in the highest terms in regard to their new surroundings. We trust, indeed, we are sure, that the future years will see thousands of new faces in our midst, and that the long locked up wealth of the fertile Saskatchewan valley will be opened up, to the mutual benefit of the residents of Prince Albert and district, and of the Dominion of Canada at large.

The year 1892 promises to be a notable one for the Northwest Territories. The Legislative Assembly are considering laws of grave import to the community at large, and it is to be sincerely hoped that their deliberations will be crowned with success. The liquor question, one of the most important that can be imagined, is now under consideration, and nearly every member of the Assembly seem impressed with the futility of the present law, and the importance of having some wise legislation more in accord with the wishes of the majority of the people. This is a serious question, and one that requires the gravest consideration and wisest foresight. We are sure that all the representatives of the people, particularly those who represent the Saskatchewan districts, will, in their actions, be guided by the known wishes of their constituents in all their considerations of the many difficult questions that are bound to arise in the course of their deliberations.

It is to be hoped that the year to come will see united effort to promote immigration into the Prince Albert district, and that the local efforts will be assisted generously by the Government at Ottawa. Up to the present time, the efforts have been entirely local, but we trust that the Government, being now well informed of the many advantages this district possesses, will co-operate in endeavoring to build up a prosperous province, and one that will be a credit to the Dominion of Canada.

THE EXECUTIVE GOVERNMENT.

A copy of an ordinance respecting the Executive Government of the Territories has been received at this office. A careful reading of its provisions will show that a section, at least, of the Assembly have strong views respecting the powers given that body under the new constitution, a view we take it, that is not endorsed by a large majority of the electors. The new constitution is capable of being successfully carried out on a much more limited scale than the one proposed, and carried out in a way that will prove satisfactory to the Territories. We feel certain however, that if the contents of the Bill as introduced, are accepted by a majority of the Assembly, the benefits of the increased control awarded the country will not prove so great a blessing as was imagined by many. We are not sufficiently well versed in constitutional law to undertake an argument on so important a point, but we hazard the opinion that in its present shape, it is contrary to the spirit and the letter of the North West Territories Act, and we will not be surprised should it receive a quietus from the Governor General or not sooner vetoed.

OUR REPRESENTATIVES.

The North West legislators at the city of the plains have at last got into harness and down to business in real earnest, and to the observer who follows closely the proceedings of this infant parliament of Canada's heritage as our great fathers at Ottawa so frequently term us, several important facts become most potent and impressive. Perhaps the most marked of these is that the representatives of the people have a stupendous task imposed upon them, a similar responsibility which it is doubtful, has fallen to the lot of Canadian legislatures since the days of Confederation. Another equally important and prominent fact is that the members of the Legislative Assembly have the combined forces of determination and ability to grapple with and solve the intricate and difficult problems that in the very nature of things must be encountered and overcome. Taking them altogether, it is not we believe hazardous to say that the people of the Northwest are not only satisfied with their choice of representatives but they are pardonably proud of the calm, deliberate and statesmanlike manner in which their delegates are now carrying out in a very marked degree the future destiny of the great Northwest.

PROTECTION FROM FIRE.

In view of the fact that the personnel of the Town Council will shortly undergo its annual change, and from present indications the change will be a very decided one this year, THE TIMES, at the risk of being taken to task for being in too much of a hurry, wishes at the outset to bring to the attention of the ratepayers and those seeking positions as their servants, the urgent and pressing and in fact, the immediate necessity of providing more suitable and reliable protection from the fire fiend to at least the more thickly inhabited portions of our town. We have no wish to dampen the ardor of those who believe that the erection of a $10,000 Town Hall is essential to the welfare and future prospects of the townspeople, at the same time we cannot refrain from asking the question, which would be the more suitable and lastingly beneficial, the erection of a handsome structure such as no doubt the citizens would like to point to as their City Hall, when they can afford it, or a much less sum (than is proposed) spent in much needed fire protection? No argument is needed to establish the fact that the latter is much more badly needed than the former, and property owners and residents of that part of the town adjoining River Street, say between King and Church and McKay Streets heed have no picture presented them of the inevitable clean sweep of perhaps the savings of a lifetime and in all probability the more dreadful and irreparable loss of life, and indescribable sufferings that would ensue should a fire break out in the region named especially during a windy or blustering winter's night. Notwithstanding the fact that the Town Hall by-law has become in a measure law by the will of the people, THE TIMES would strongly urge as its conception of the best interests of the town that this matter should receive prompt, decisive and favorable consideration not only by aspirants to civic offices but by the ratepayers, and townspeople generally. Let us make provisions of safety for what we already possess, before proceeding to business which may at any moment become losses by the inadequacy of protection against such an uncontrollable element as fire. Assurance of protection etc.

The Bill introduced by Mr. Betts to repeal those sections of the Poison Ordinance which refer only to Saskatchewan, has been read a third time and passed. It now only awaits the assent of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor to become law. The owners of sheep will no doubt appreciate the protection again given them.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

A very successful Xmas tree entertainment was given by the Methodist S. School last Wednesday evening. The programme was not too long and the children acquitted themselves admirably. The pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Stacey, occupied the chair, and after the music and recitations had been rendered, introduced to the delighted children the chief personage of the evening—Santa Claus. The management is to be congratulated on their happy choice of a representative of Old St. Nicholas. When the trees were stripped an interesting ceremony took place which was not on the chairman's programme. Mr. W. J. Kernaghan, Secretary of the S.S. came forward and read the following address:—

"DEAR MADAME,—We the undersigned, on behalf of the Prince Albert Methodist Sunday School, feeling strongly desirous of expressing our appreciation of the great services rendered by you to the cause of Methodism and Christianity here, through your organization of our Sunday School, and our personal esteem for the pleasing manner in which you so efficiently discharged the duties of its first superintendent, embrace the opportunity afforded by this Christmas Festival to tender you the accompanying token of our regard with the hope that you may long be spared to occupy those positions of christian usefulness which you are so eminently fitted to adorn." Signed by the officers and teachers of the School.

The address was beautifully illuminated, the work of our townsman, Mr. A. S. Stewart, and was accompanied by two valuable pieces of silverware.

We learn that under the able superintendency of Mr. C. L. Ross, the school is making rapid growth, and is in a good financial position. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the two trees were well filled with gifts for young and old, some of considerable value and all apparently useful and good. When the large gathering dispersed everyone went away well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

"August Flower"

For two years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and was for all that time under treatment by a physician. He finally, after trying everything, said stomach was about worn out, and that I would have to cease eating solid food for a time at least. I was so weak that I could not work. Finally on the recommendation of a friend who had used your preparations

A worn-out with beneficial results, I procured a bottle of August Flower, and commenced using it. It seemed to do me good at once. I gained in strength and flesh rapidly; my appetite became good, and I suffered no bad effects from what I ate. I feel now like a new man, and consider that August Flower has entirely cured me of Dyspepsia in its worst form. JAMES E. DEDERICK, Saugerties, New York.

W. B. Utsey, St. George's, S. C., writes: I have used your August Flower for Dyspepsia and find it an excellent remedy.
